— MOVE PUBLIC OPINION —

Our print publication JAMES Magazine and JAMES Magazine Online (JMO), our daily internet news service, provide information on various Georgia business, political and other news by a team of veteran staff and contributing writers to thousands of influential readers.

The print JAMES Magazine's content and controlled circulation (print distribution of more than 10,000) attracts the attention of many who lead in the development of public opinion on major issues across Georgia. From top corporate, professional and government/political leaders to reporters and writers in the mainstream media throughout the state, JAMES carries features, columns, rankings, polls and commentary that become part of the fabric of public discussion and opinion throughout the state.

The JMO daily news motto is "information before it's news." We often break stories never covered by the mainstream media. JMO also publishes opinion columns in its Forum section on topics ranging from public policy issues to elections authored by Republicans, Democrats, independents and other opinion leaders.

Consider

JAMES Magazine and JMO are published by Internet News Agency. Subscribers to the JMO news service get a bonus by receiving a complimentary JAMES Magazine subscription in the mail.

Legislators, businesspeople along with many people in public service especially consider our daily early morning JMO news email and postings on JamesMagazineGA.com to be a must read. JAMES Magazine has become known over its 20-year span for its annual list of the "Most Influential Georgians" and top state lawmakers, annual rankings of Georgia's top colleges, universities and technical institutions and annual rankings of Georgia's top governmental affairs firms and lobbyists. JAMES is the only Georgia media outlet that compiles state lobbyist rankings. The magazine, as well as JMO, also publishes the popular Floating Boats section that reports on who or what is "rising, drifting or sinking" in Georgia politics and business. An equally-popular feature called Georgia Pines chronicles good news from various cities and counties around the state.

JAMES is a must read for Georgia's top leaders and influential citizens. After all, they set the opinions and trends that keep our state moving forward.
